

The AUSTRALIA AFRICA BUSINESS COUNCIL aims to unite business communities on both continents. The Council promotes business networks, social contacts and increased trade and investment between Africa and Australia. The AABC NSW Chapter provides networking opportunities for like minded people interested in developing the Australian African trade and investment relationship. Our objectives are to facilitate, forge and strengthen trade and investment relationships between Australia and Africa. We encourage constant dialogue and debate on how best to strengthen and develop this relationship. We actively engage with the African High Commissions and Embassies and Australian Government bodies viz. Department of Foreign Affairs and Austrade. Members are kept informed and maintain contact with each other via the following networking opportunities:

Members of the AABC enjoy the following benefits:

- * Discounted member rates for business briefings and functions
- * Introduction to African High Commissions
- * Opportunities to network and utilize the expertise of members
- * Direct opportunities to promote your business through introductions to business and governments in Australia and Africa by those who are known in the region
- * Opportunity to participate in trade missions, often at a discount to members
- * Access to restricted Meet 'n Greet database with African Dignitaries visiting Australia
- * Access to travel deals in and between Australia and Africa
- * Access to trade enquiries received by the Business Council
